

Invitation

We cordially invite you to feature your business or community group at "A Tiny Taste of Tyalgum," scheduled for January 20, 2024. Generously funded by the Reconnecting Regional NSW Community Events Program, this event is free for both businesses and the public.

Designed to spotlight local businesses, community groups, and artists, the event aims to rejuvenate tourism and foster robust community connections through positive participation.

Taking place on the oval and in the hall across the road, the event will be open to the public from 11 am to 11 pm. Attendees can enjoy a vibrant atmosphere with live music, delectable foods, refreshing drinks, a beer garden, children's activities, local business and community information stalls, historical displays, as well as art and poetry exhibits. Cap off the evening with a caller-led bush dance in the hall.

To participate, kindly fill out the attached application/agreement forms and email them to atinytasteoftyalgum@gmail.com, including 'Application' in the subject line.

Feel free to extend this invitation to others—everyone is welcome to join in this celebration.

Thank you, and let's together make "A Tiny Taste of Tyalgum" a memorable showcase of our community's vibrancy.
